B. WE NEED TO PROTECT DOMESTIC ANIMALS

There is no doubt that the number of domestic animals being cruelly abandoned has risen dramatically recently. Therefore, I am urging everyone to seriously consider adopting a pet and in this blog I will show you why this is an excellent idea.

Obviously, abandoning a pet is cruel for the animal, but it is also harmful for society. Stray animals easily become malnourished and face many kinds of abuse, all of which can make them extremely aggressive; their poor condition also increases the risk of them spreading contagious diseases. Those that end up in animal shelters, despite the care of the workers there, still live miserable lives.

That is why it is so important that we think seriously about adopting one. Not only is it essential for domestic animals to live in a loving and caring environment, but it is also beneficial for their owners as they make great companions that can boost our own happiness and well-being.

It is vital we learn the importance of protecting domestic animals. I believe abandoning pets is wrong and that, if we can, we should adopt one for both their benefit and ours! Let me know with your comments if you agree!
